Founded in 1780, Château Puy Guilhem graces the sun-soaked valleys of Fronsac on Bordeaux's right bank, a true treasure in this acclaimed region. Tasting Notes:

"Very much brighter and more vivid on the nose, this is a more open wine at this point in its evolution and so it is ahead of the other cuvée in terms of fruit expression. The oak and tannin are similar and this means that it will still require some more time to settle down, but this is another example of a wine which will mellow swiftly into a nicely weighted claret."
